

Need a fun Halloween treat for some special kids in your neighborhood? Here's a fun and easy one! One package of the Spider Web Doilies will make 48 of these treats! Skip the fussy cut bat and punch out with any punch to make them even easier.

Supplies List:

- Stamps: Cheer All Year Stamp Set (photopolymer 139839)
- Ink: Basic Black Archival Stampin' Pad (140931); Tangelo Twist Classic Stampin' Pad (133646)
- Paper: Basic Black Cardstock (121045): 2" x 11", scored at 4 1/4"; Happy Hauntings Designer Series Paper (139584): 1 7/8" x 4 1/8"; Very Vanilla Cardstock (101650): scrap
- Accessories: Spider Web Doilies (139622); Very Vanilla Thick Baker's Twine (138411); 3/4" Circle Punch (119873); Stampin' Dimensionals (104430); Tear & Tape Adhesive (138995); Multipurpose Liquid Glue (110755); Fine-Tip Glue Pen (138309); Bone Folder (102300)

Instructions:

1. Fold the Basic Black Cardstock on score line and crease with Bone Folder.
2. Place 1" strips of Tear & Tape on the back of the front panel at the top. Adhere to back panel to create your pocket.
3. Adhere Designer Series Paper to the front pocket panel using Multipurpose Liquid Glue.
4. Adhere Spider Web Doily to the front using Fine-Tip Glue Pen. Trim off excess. TIP: Apply glue in dots, not lines.
5. Stamp bat in Basic Black and 'boo' in Tangelo Twist on a scrap of Very Vanilla.
6. Cut out bat and punch out 'boo'.
7. Put Stampin' Dimensionals on back of bat and 'boo'.
8. Cut a length of Very Vanilla Thick Baker's Twine. Unravel threads.
9. Wrap threads around fingers loosely and place onto the adhesive on the back of the bat. Adhere to treat pocket.
10. Adhere 'boo' to bat.
