The most important parts of a scrapbook page are the journaling and the photos, in that order.  So I like to keep my scrapbook pages simple.

1. Adhere Pool Party dotted paper to 12x12 Basic Black cardstock for page base.
2. Use Banner Triple punch to punch ends of holly print, Real Red cardstock strip, and Basic Black cardstock strip.  Adhere 3 layers together, aligning at straight end.  Adhere 3/4" from bottom of scrapbook page base.
3. Die cut letters, HOHOHOLIDAYS, from Real Red cardstock.  Glue with Fine-Tip Glue Pen about 1" from top of scrapbook page base.  Tip: use temporary adhesive to adhere a strip of paper or cardstock to page to act as a guide for straight placement, or place letters in a random way.
4. Use Basic Black cardstock shapes to mat photographs, modifying dimensions as needed.  Adhere to page.  Layer journaling piece to black mat and adhere to page.
5. "Fussy" cut several Santa shapes from Designer Series Paper and attach with Stampin' Dimensionals.
