

I'm always looking for ideas for a masculine card, no matter what the holiday. For some reason it seems harder to get creative when I need a masculine design. Check out Page 39 in our new Occasions Catalog for a great solution. The new items are perfect for Valentine's Day, Father's Day, or anytime you want to show someone you care.

Instructions:

1. Fold the Kraft Cardstock in half and crease well with a Bone Folder to make card base.
2. Use Fast Fuse Adhesive to attach the Kraft Corrugated Paper to the front of the card and then add the Black Globe paper on top.
3. Using Big Shot Machine, and the 2 5/8" Banner framelit, cut the Real Red Cardstock banner, and then stamp it with the "You Mean the World to Me" stamp. While the ink is still wet, sprinkle on Stampin' Emboss Clear Powder and use the Heat Tool to emboss.
4. Punch a tiny hole in the Real Red banner and add the Antique Brad.
5. Adhere the banner to the Kraft Corrugated Paper 2 ¾" piece and then cut the end of the Kraft piece to make a banner slightly larger than the Real Red banner.
6. Use Stampin' Dimensionals on the back of the banner and adhere to the front of the card.
